The psychological moment is about the most elusive thing in the world.

Many people delude themselves by saying "It will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy, and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness and urinary trouble disappear. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.

FORMER LAS VEGAS GIRL DIES SUDDENLY

Trinidad, Colo., Sept. 21.—Mystery surrounds the death of Miss Nellie Funkhauser, aged nineteen, a stenographer, who was yesterday found dead in her room at the residence of A. W. Wright, with whom she made her home. The body was found about noon by Mrs. Wright, who went to summon Miss Funkhauser to answer a telephone call. Miss Funkhauser had been suffering from a severe sore throat. There was blood upon her pillow and it is supposed she may have died from a hemorrhage.

The mother of the dead girl, Mrs. Nellie Funkhauser, and a little sister three years old, and an older sister, Helen, live in Denver. Mrs. Funkhauser is thought to be a housekeeper in some hotel there. Two years ago the father deserted the mother, leaving her with six children. In one week two of them had died of scarlet fever, and about a month later the only boy accidentally shot and killed himself.

Once Lived Here
Miss Nellie Funkhauser formerly lived in Las Vegas, where she had a wide circle of friends. She was an especially fine musician and had delighted more than one audience in the Meadow City. Her sudden death will come as a shock to her friends here.

LAS VEGAS SCENE IN A THEATRICAL PAPER

In the July number of the Green Book, a theatrical publication, there appears an illustration showing the Harvey lower ranch and H. A. Harvey's saddle pony, Star, with a woman mounted on the steed which is now owned by Rodney B. Schoonmaker. It is entitled: "An actress 'In a Candy Shop,' mounted on her bronco which she herself broke to saddle at a ranch near Las Vegas, New Mexico."

LAS VEGAS MAN TO BUCK COAL TRUST IN SANTA FE

According to the newspapers over there, Don Eugenio Romero, of Las Vegas, who is erecting a planing mill and box factory at Estancia, will also start a coal and lumber business in the Capital city, with Tomas B. Delgado in charge.

Mr. Romero has three saw mills in the mountains west of Estancia and has more than a million feet of lumber on hand. It is not expected that the box factory will furnish many boxes this season as most of the contracts for boxes for use this fall have already been placed.

This will make the second box factory at Estancia, the first one having been completed some time ago and put into operation.

ONLY CIRCUS COMING HERE THIS SEASON

Campbell Bros' Consolidated shows which will give two performances in Las Vegas on next Monday afternoon and night, with a big street parade in the morning of that day, will be the only circus to show here this season, hence they are sure to draw record breaking crowds.

All previous efforts of these able circus managers have been surpassed this year and they are presenting the largest, cleanest and most gorgeous entertainment that has ever been given heretofore under canvas.

No labor has been too hard, no expense too great, to gather together a brilliant array of everything that goes toward the making of a first-class circus; 500 head of fine high-spirited horses, over 300 human beings, many of them from foreign nations over the seas, all trained to perfection in their own special art, bare-back riders, aerial artists, acrobats, jugglers and others too numerous to mention besides the large and elaborate menagerie which has been secured at great expense and consists of a herd of trained elephants, camels, lions, fierce as in their native forest, tigers, leopards, an Asiatic Yak, imported direct from the land of Tibet, and others as equally interesting. The brilliant street parade will be given promptly at 10 a. m.

J. J. HAGERMAN TO BE BURIED IN UNITED STATES

Roswell, N. M., Sept. 21.—A cablegram to ex-Governor H. J. Hagerman, from his mother, Mrs. J. J. Hagerman, from Milan, Italy, where Mr. Hagerman died a few days ago, conveys the information that she will leave there soon, with the remains for the United States. It is believed that burial will take place in Evergreen cemetery in Milwaukee, Wis., that city having been Mr. Hagerman's home for many years and many relatives and friends of the family are living there now. Mrs. Hagerman's trying situation, being alone at Milan, is greatly relieved through the efficient aid of H. H. Hayes, of the banking house of Morgan Hayes & Co., of Paris, and of the American consul at Milan. Ex-Governor Hagerman of this city and his brother, Percy J. Hagerman, of Colorado Springs, will go to New York to meet their mother and the body.

TERCENTENARY STAMPS ON SALE THIS WEEK

September 25 Las Vegas patrons of the postoffice will have the opportunity of purchasing the postage stamps issued by the government in commemoration of the Hudson-Fulton tercentenary. The stamps will be placed on sale simultaneously in every city and town in the United States. Rigid orders governing the sale of the new stamps have been issued by the department.

The stamp is of artistic design. The engraving in the center shows as a background the Palisades of the Hudson river, with Hudson's ship, the Half Moon, sailing majestically up on one side of the river with all sails set, and the Clermont steaming down the river on the opposite side.

In the foreground is an Indian canoe, representing the first means of navigation on the river. Another canoe containing four Indians is in the background. On the top of the border of the stamp in Gothic letters is the inscription: "Hudson-Fulton Tercentenary. 1609-1909." The stamp is oblong in shape, like the Jamestown exposition stamp, 7-8 x 1-8 inches in size.

Of course, the stamp has around its edges the usual marks legally required to designate it as U. S. postage. The stamp will be issued only in two-cent denomination, and will not be made up for sale in book form. It will be sold on request only.

To Be Happy
You must have good health. You can't have good health if your liver is not doing its duty—slow but sure poisoning is going on all the time under such circumstances. Ballard's Herbine makes a perfectly healthy liver—keeps the stomach and bowels right and acts as a tonic for the entire system. Sold by Central Block Depot Drug Co.

The charity that begins at home doesn't make many acquaintances abroad.

Go With A Rush
The demand for that wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney Cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding—all druggists say they never saw the like. It's because they never fail to cure Sour Stomach, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilelessness, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Chills and Malaria. Only 25c.

We are a good deal happier because of a lot of things we don't know.
